

FREE TO ENTER OPEN DAY

Wednesday May 23rd 2007 at
Lea Valley Riding Centre, Leyton, London, E10 7QL
Free admission 1000 – 1600 hours

Equine Health and Welfare Strategy for Great Britain

www.
equinehealthandwelfarestrategy
.co.uk

Celebrity Guest Frankie Dettori

WHY SHOULD YOU COME?

- To find out about the Equine Health and Welfare Strategy and what it hopes to achieve over the next 10 years
- To experience interactive educational themes created by top welfare charities, veterinary surgeons and representatives of the equine industry
- To watch demonstrations and experience good equine health and welfare in a friendly environment
- To understand about the DUTY of CARE and OBLIGATIONS expected of horse keepers and owners under the Animal Welfare Act 2006
- To learn about special messages for children and adults to help educate owners and keepers towards better horse ownership
- To exchange views with our equine celebrity Frankie Dettori, government officials and equine industry representatives

Activities to be provided by:

Blue Cross

British Equine Veterinary Association

British Horse Society

British Veterinary Nurses Association

Defra

Donkey Sanctuary

ILPH

Lantra

Lea Valley Riding Centre – recycling equine waste

And many more

National Equine Welfare Council

National Equine Database

RSPCA

Redwings Horse Sanctuary

Riding for the Disabled Association

South Essex Insurance Brokers

The Horse Trust

Veteran Horse Society

Worshipful Company of Loriners

Worshipful Company of Farriers

If you cannot attend please pass this flyer to someone who can

Maps, travel details, car parking arrangements etc. can be found on the website www.equineheathandwelfarestrategy.co.uk